Dear David,

Your presentation to the chapter of the International Coach Federation in Rome, Italy is very much appreciated. Here are some of the comments of the participants:

“I very much enjoyed the speaker, his direct and simple approach, coming from his strong skill base.”

“His simplicity, empathy, his ability to engage us, as well as his humble approach impressed me.”

“I liked everything: the interesting point of view, professional but never boring, the speaker’s level of competence, and the items he discussed, everybody’s participation, etc.”

“David’s teaching modality through storytelling, his openness in sharing about himself, the main points that he explained through his life tales and related explanations: I appreciated all this plus the interaction and his essential and practical answers as well as David’s flexibility on timing and his generosity. He succeeded in engaging me emotionally.”

“The possibility to have a direct dialogue with David: one would ask precise questions and David would answer with his life experiences, without many ornaments.”

David, thank you again for your presentation to our chapter. Hopefully, we can do this again some time in the future.

With best wishes
